East Lansing Info (ELi) is a proud member of the Institute for Nonprofit News and LION Publishers.

The Institute for Nonprofit News [2] (INN) brings together over 100 nonprofit media organizations to share best practices, collaborate on stories, pool resources, and provide professional development.

LION Publishers [3] (Local Independent Online News Publishers) ?foster[s] the viability and excellence of locally focused independent online news organizations and cultivate[s] their connections to their communities through education and action.?

Together, these two umbrella organizations help ELi?s management learn more, obtain peer support, access valuable resources, and do better work. We are honored to be part of both groups!
