Facility for Rare Isotope Beams Opens Doors to the Public this Saturday <sup>[2]</sup>

At the open house on Saturday, visitors can expect activities, demonstrations, presentations with nuclear scientists and tours of FRIB and the NSCL. The open house starts at 11 a.m. and ends at 5 p.m., with the last tours starting at 4 p.m. Admission and parking are free and the event is open to all ages. Registration is unnecessary.

For the first time, there will be a food truck for visitors, located in the Wharton Center circle. Visitors can park at the Shaw Lane and Wharton Center parking ramps, and accessible parking will be available near the tour entrances.

If visitors need accommodations, it is asked that they contact Alexa Allen at 517-908-7801 or events@frib.msu.edu <sup>[3]</sup> between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by Friday, August 17.
